- It will still be possible for you this year to return a proxy without any indication of votes (blank votes). The absence of votes are currently considered to be in favor of the adoption of the proposed resolutions in question. According to a new bill, it will no more be the case in the future, the absence of voting will be considered as “null and void” votes. We therefore recommend you to take the habit of filling a box for each item on the agenda requiring a vote.
