eInvoicing
Simple and Rapid

What is an electronic invoice?

Simply,

It's sending by e-mail an invoice as a pdf file, that has been signed electronically.

The electronic signature:

Guarantees the integrity of the invoice
Permits the authentication of the document's author
Ensures legal compliance

No more paper invoices, no more invoices by post,
no need to scan documents!

Testimonies from our customers

PHILIPS

«We joined the trend, and we do not regret it. This solution is efficient and convenient, we are more than satisfied with it!»

Firmenich

«It's a lot quicker and documents don't get lost in the post. Thank you for offering such a solution.»

ampere industrie

«When Solvay offered us electronic invoices, we accepted without any hesitation. This modern solution has only advantages: speeds up transfers between services for validation and verifying purposes, enables direct electronic archiving and eliminates all paper, therefore much more environment friendly.»
