

Chen Pu named President of Solvay's Technology Solutions global business unit

Saddle Brook, NJ Sept. 17, 2018 --- Chen Pu has been named president of the Solvay Group's Technology Solutions global business unit. He will succeed Mike Radossich who will go on to head the Group's Novecare global business unit. Chen will lead the business unit, which is comprised of the legacy Cytec Mining Solutions, Additive Technologies and Phosphorus Specialties businesses acquired in 2016. He will be based in Technology Solutions' headquarters in Saddle Brook, New Jersey.

Chen is a 24-year Solvay veteran who most recently headed the Group's Oil & Gas business as an Executive Vice President. His background includes commercial, technical, operational and research roles in advanced formulations and related applications for industrial, energy and coatings customers, among others. In addition to leading global market divisions, he also served as head of Solvay Novecare's two largest regions in Asia Pacific and North America. Chen holds a doctorate in Organic Chemistry from the National University of Singapore and an MBA from the University of Surrey in Guilford, UK.
